PURPOSE

This document describes the capability of Safety Genius Ltd and sets out the principles we expect as a business. A consistent and compliant way of working across our company is critical to our success — it helps us be the organisation that clients want to do business with, that communities want working for them, that suppliers want to work with, and that people want to work for.

We do not permit or condone any act of fraud, bribery, corruption or deception.

We avoid situations where personal interests or actions could conflict, or appear to conflict, with the company's best interests.

We protect information and do not use it for individual benefit.

ABOUT SAFETY GENIUS

Compliance Is Our Mission

Founded by Cornelius du Plooy, Founder & CEO (Global), Safety Genius Ltd is an international, comprehensive compliance consultancy with a clear mission: to take the pain out of compliance.

We support both large multinational corporations and SMEs, offering cost-effective, tailored compliance solutions. Cornelius leads a dedicated international team of expert consultants and professionals, each bringing deep expertise in Health & Safety, Security, Environment, Quality, IT, Process Safety Engineering and auditing. Together, they offer pragmatic, tailored support across multiple legal frameworks and industry sectors worldwide.

Values

Our values are the foundation of how we work and behave. They guide our actions, decisions and relationships. Our Code of Ethics builds on these values, reinforcing our commitment to lawful, ethical and responsible conduct in everything we do.

Vision

We lead by example — demonstrating how a company and its people can uphold the highest ethical and professional standards. We expect every employee to contribute to a culture of integrity, accountability and safety in all that we do.

Commitment

We are known for being reliable, responsive and easy to work with. We take pride in strong client relationships built on trust, consistency and clear communication — always committed to delivering top-quality service.
